

ACCOUNTING HISTORY CONFERENCE

Cardiff University, 12th-13th September 2011

The 23rd Accounting History Conference organised at Cardiff Business School will be the launch event for Accounting History Review. In accordance with the focus of the journal a key theme of the conference will be 'Accounting in History' - exploring the scope for greater interdisciplinary engagement between accounting and mainstream historians. The guest speakers are historians whose work has important implications for accounting history research. Plenary addresses will be given by Mary Poovey, New York University, author of Genres of the Credit Economy: Mediating Value in Eighteenth and Nineteenth-Century Britain and A History of the Modern Fact; and Evan Jones, Bristol University, author of prize winning work on accounting for smuggling in the mid-sixteenth century.

Also with a view to stimulating the development of new research agendas there will be a panel discussion on future research directions in accounting history involving leading commentators on the state of the field over the past two decades. Panellists include Salvador Carmona, Warwick Funnell, Christopher Napier and Stephen Walker.

Those wishing to offer papers to be considered for presentation at the conference should send a one page abstract, formatted in Word (including name, affiliation and contact details), as an email attachment by 1st June 2011 to Carbs-Conference@cf.ac.uk.

Tel +44 (0)29 2087 5731.

Applicants will be advised of the conference organisers' decision by 10th June 2011.
